7 CALLS/CHALLENGES OF THE 26TH GENERAL CHAPTER FOR A NEW VOCATIONAL CULTURE IN THE CONGREGATION

By Carlos Verga CMF

The 26th CMF General Chapter, both in its key points and in its procedure and final exhortation, proposes an evangelising style that reflects the attitudes and way of proceeding of Jesus in the Gospels. Why? Because the procedure is conversational as in the Emmaus episode or in his encounters with Nicodemus, Zacchaeus, the Samaritan woman, and other dialogues with his disciples. And the keys are synodality, narratives and an appreciative approach. What are Jesus' parables if not little stories that reveal what God is doing in everyday life? Teachings offered on the shore of the lake, on the mountain or on the plain, on the road, on the way out of the temple or in the temple. READ MORE

DISCERNING VOCATION IN CMFF COMMUNITIES

By Alejandro Añez CMF

I am Alejandro Añez CMF, in charge of vocation ministry in our Peru-Bolivia Province. To accompany some young men in their vocational discernment, it was coordinated with the Provincial Superior, Juan Carlos Bartra CMF, and with the brothers of the community of the North Potosi Mission, in Bolivia, to have a year of vocational experience living with us in the Mission... CLARET_WAY A DREAM COME TRUE IN AMÉRICA

By Itsury González SC

TO DREAM is a grace that God gives us and that we should never lose.

When I met the Claretian family my first pastoral project was a community of young people between 22 and 35 years old in the National Shrine of Panama. At that time, it was the only group of young people of those ages in the Claretian Province of Central America. That is why we dreamed that there would be more groups like that and that we would find at some point, by some means, something that would link us to be able to share experiences... READ MORE

VOCATIONAL LETTER

By Anna Daszkowska RMI

Dear Friends!

We are all ON THE WAY. To where? Mainly to heaven, but also to the better life here, on this earth. The Kingdom of Heaven begins here... What does it mean for me to make this path easier to others?

In this journey of life and Claretian vocation I received the call to come to Nigeria and to be God's instrument in carrying out His plans for this mission. Since the time when He called me to be a...
