

LITANY TO THE BLESSED CLARETIAN MARTYRS

Blessed Felipe de Jesús Munárriz and 50 companions of the “martyr seminary” of Barbastro:

Pray for us, that we may know how to live our vocation in community and face the difficulties of missionary life with courage, nourished by the Eucharist and guided by the star of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Blessed Andrés Solà Molist, martyred in the religious persecution of Mexico:

Pray for us, so that in every circumstance we may know how to serve the poor, even at the risk of our lives.

Blessed José María Ruiz Cano, formator who gave his life for his brothers:

Pray that the Lord of the harvest send new workers and that those who discern their possible missionary vocation be generous in their response to God's will.

Blessed Jesús Aníbal Gómez and companions martyrs of Fernán Caballero:

Pray for those who have been sent as missionaries to other countries, that they may be welcomed with brotherhood and incarnate themselves in the new situations.

Blessed Antonio Valamassana and companions, martyrs of Tarragona:

Pray that all missionaries may be seekers of truth and justice, men of dialogue and artisans of reconciliation.

Blessed Mateu Casals and companions martyrs of Cervera and other communities:

Pray for the missionaries who work in the social field and for all those who strive to live and announce the Word of God in different contexts.

Blessed Teofilo Casajus and fellow student martyrs:

Pray for those who are being formed in the Organisms of the Congregation, that they may grow in their process of configuration to Christ and commit themselves with enthusiasm.

Blessed Fernando Saperas, martyr of chastity:

Pray for all our missionary brothers and ask the Lord for the grace of new vocations, where they do not yet exist, so that the Congregation may be fully formed.
